What was at base camp?

Gearing up...

A team approach

The unwitting new recruit...

The uphill journey...

Boot camp

Getting down to it...

- ❧ Searching the literature for evidence – Western Australian Centre for Evidence Based Nursing and Midwifery (WACEBN) in 2010
- ❧ Increasing your skills in searching the literature for evidence – jointly prepared but individually presented in 2012 for WACEBN
- ❧ Workshops for Faculty postgraduates and academic staff on how to search the literature for systematic reviews

Uphill journey continues...

Being “egged on” to hop to their next challenge

Meeting of the Minds

☞ We partnered with a systematic review team of researchers and their Australian collaborators in the Autism Collaborative Research Centre (CRC) in the creation of a robust search strategy

Collaboration

☞ With academics

☞ We learned about useful resources and tips from academics who were involved in conducting systematic reviews

Collaboration

☞ With colleagues

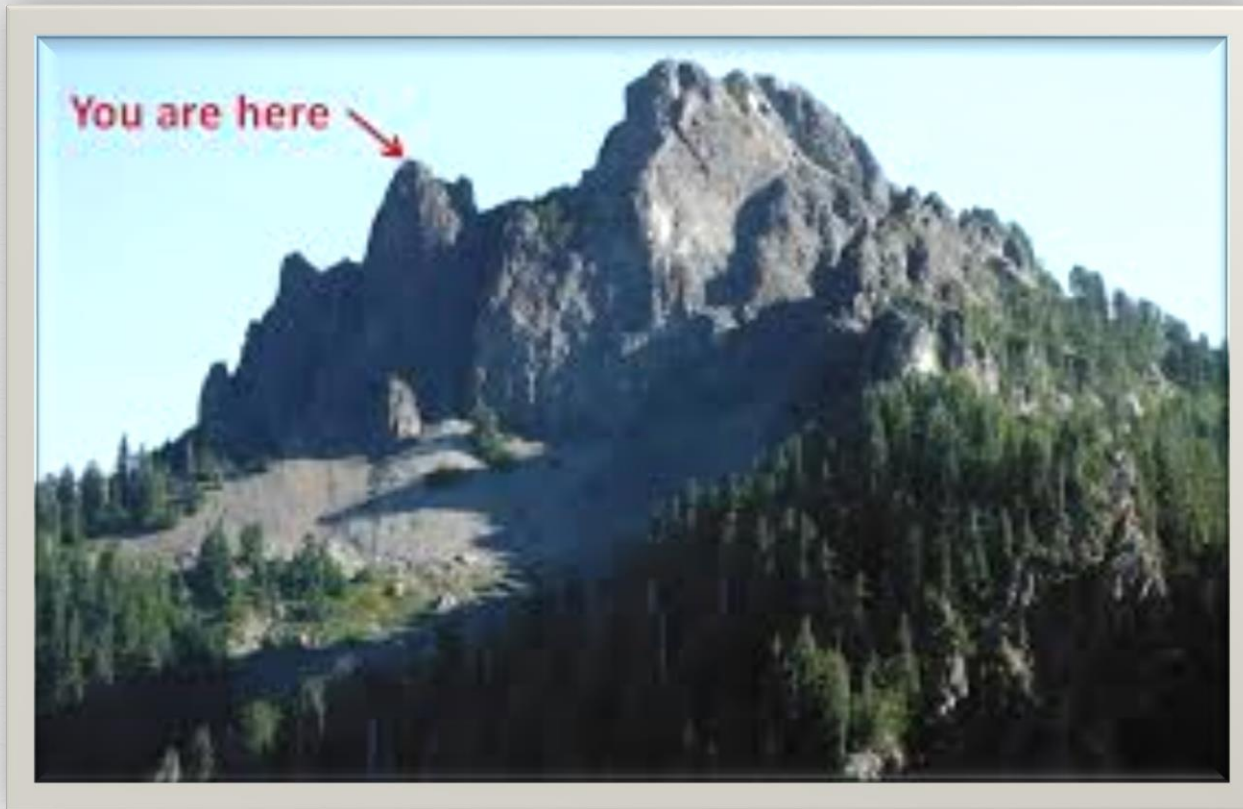

☞ We collaborated with Perth based health librarians in the organisation of a research workshop called Searching Systematically: best practice in librarian support for systematic reviews at which we presented a paper on Searching the Literature when Undertaking a Systematic Review

Continuing our journey...

- ❧ Qualitative Research
- ❧ Run the 'Searching the Literature When Undertaking a Systematic Review' workshop again but this time utilising a more hands on approach
- ❧ Team with EBP experts to run joint session on SRs
- ❧ Investigate PRESS methodology for checking search strategies

A new summit

Getting there...

Recognition and satisfaction!

What we have learned...
